

EXHORTER

LIKELY QUALITIES AND TRAITS

- Loves to encourage others to live up to their full potential
- Exhort, encourage, and challenge others to overcome sin or problems
- Call's God's people to higher levels
- Emphasize God's promises and encourage believers to remain faithful
- Wants a visible response when teaching or speaking
- Skilled communicator
- Prefers to apply truth rather than research it
- Prefers information that has a practical application
- Gives precise steps of action
- Accepts people as they are without judging them
- Wants to work with people
- Liked/loved by people because of his/her positive attitude
- Makes decisions easily
- Finds truth/gains insight in experience, then validates it in scripture
- Loves to do personal counseling
- Will discontinue personal counseling if no effort to change is seen
- Desires to clear up problems with others quickly
- Views trials as opportunities to produce personal growth
- Expects a lot of himself/herself, and others
- Is able to see root problems
- Raises hope for solutions
- Turns problems into benefits
- Prefers to witness by his/her life rather than words
- Always completes what is started
- Needs a "sounding board" for bouncing off ideas and thoughts

DANGERS TO BE AWARE OF

- Talking too much
- Tends to interrupt others in eagerness to give opinions or advice
- Will use Scriptures out of context in order to make a point
- Tends to oversimplify a problem, thus making each problem solvable by a formula, thus belittling others
- Can be overly optimistic, positive, or flattering, and avoid confrontation when it is needed
- Outspokenly opinionated
- Overly self-confident
- Can rely on personal charisma and gregariousness rather than relying on energy and power of the Holy Spirit

